To whom it may concern:

It appears that this proposed future legislation will confiscate the money in my retirement nest egg (401k & IRA) in exchange for a guaranteed lifetime income to be provided by the federal government. If I have misinterpreted the language, please set me straight, because the rest of this message is in regard to that understanding.

I am totally 100% opposed to anything that even remotely resembles a plan for the government to take control of my personal retirement savings that I have worked so hard for so many years to put away. How dare the government even consider doing this to the citizens of this country. If this idea is not immediately sent to the trash heap of history, I can assure you I will work tirelessly and endlessly to ensure that any politician who supports this idiotic scheme is put out of office as soon as possible!!!

No, No, No, No, No!!
